

Enouncing the war

Dad turns the wireless on and Neville Chamberlain (the prime minister) speaks about the war all of them are gathered round the wireless Rebekah is biting her nails because she is worried that we will go to war dad and Jimmy are sitting opposite to Rebekah they are also worried.

Mum thinks that were going to go to war with Germany. She tries to imagine what this war would be like because of how bad the First World War was like.

After a while the prime minister said I am speaking to you at bbc home service, if Germany don't get there troops of Poland then we would go to war with them; but he didn't get his troops of Poland so he announced war. After he had spoken they played the National anthem and they all stand up and listen while Avril and Rebekah play outside in the sun.

Mum was right she was worried because Jimmy and Arthur would have, to fight in the war.

Mum is upset because they have just managed to get enough money to pay for food.

Rebekah and her mum and dad where glad they were moving to America to keep Rebekah safe but she won't see Avril again they have to move they are Jews and if Germany invades they will get killed.

Mum imagine what it will be like if they have to stay in that air raid shelter.
